

I am a customer of a small independant ISP in California, and this change in legislation will only hinder my choices in the future for Internet Access. By assisting huge, multi-state, near-monopoly-sized companies in reducing their costs (and eliminating competition) you will not be benefiting me, the consumer.